

In Loving Memory...

Bill Wernecke

3/13/55 - 6/23/11

William Charles "Bill" Wernecke died Thursday, June 23, 2011 at Overlake Hospital in Bellevue, WA. He was 56.

Bill was born March 13, 1955 in Moscow, ID to Ray and Betty Trimble Wernecke. He grew up and attended Moscow schools. Bill was involved with Cub Scouts, and during his junior and senior high school years, football, wrestling and track. He was always an avid bird hunter. He graduated from Moscow High School in 1973, and began working for Crites Pea Warehouse for several years and later for Rausch Construction finishing concrete.

In 1981 he and Patti Beloit were married in Moscow. They later divorced. On September 23, 1989 he and Carla DeHoag were married in Issaquah, WA In 1990 he established ABC Concrete in Bellevue, and was operating the business at the time of his death.

Surviving are his wife, Carla, daughters, Lindsay and Kelli, and his son, Andrew. He also leaves his parents, Ray and Betty Wernecke in Moscow, his sisters, Cheryl (Chuck) Baysinger of Moscow and Linda Jacobs of Renton, WA, a brother, Brian (Jodi) Wernecke of Palouse, WA and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral service will be held Friday, July 1, 2011 at 1:30 PM at Short's Funeral Chapel in Moscow. Burial will follow at the Moscow Cemetery.

The family suggests memorials be made to the Moscow Bear Boosters or to a charity of choice.

Online condolences may be sent to www.shortsfuneralchapel.net.